15:40-16:15	Visiting Cattle Depot Artist Village  Nestled in the sleepy neighbourhood of Ma Tau Kok, Cattle Depot Artist Village is one of Hong Kong's most precious artistic hubs. Notable for its colonial-era red brick buildings, the site was formerly a quarantine base and slaughterhouse before it was renovated and converted into a local art community in 2001. The village is home to a community of local artists and art organisations, with arguably none more prominent than Videotage, a media art organisation that focuses on new media.
16:25-17:05	Visiting Kowloon Walled City Park  Kowloon Walled City Park is now a beautiful garden featuring preserved artefacts from the former Kowloon Walled City — a Chinese garrison which became a lawless enclave for fugitives and criminal gangs through the 20th century.
